

WEEK 12 · WINGS OUT

Life Vision

& CHARTER SIGNING

You don't need a perfect wing or a windless day. You have enough clarity to see your next right movement, and the courage to extend your wings into it.

Where I've grown the most

What surprised me

MOVEMENT 1

The Themes in My Charter

Read all eleven chapter pages slowly. What keeps showing up?

Words and values that show up again and again

A dream that keeps surfacing

Where my chapters pull against each other, and need to make peace

MOVEMENT 2

My Life Truth

My Life Truth 3–5 sentences, present tense: the truths that run through every chapter

Dear me,

MOVEMENT 4

My Charter Statement

What is my life for? It might begin "I am here to..." or "My life is about..." Write a few versions. Keep the one that makes something in you say yes.

Drafts

My Charter Statement

MOVEMENT 5

My Flight Plan: Keeping the Charter Alive

My three priorities for the next 90 days the ones that would give me the most lift

How I'll know I did it

MOVEMENT 7 • SOUL CHALLENGE

Wings Out

Each morning for seven days, read your Charter Statement out loud. Choose one moment that day to live it on purpose, and write one line. Share your statement with someone at least once.
