Why I'm Here

What made me say yes to this program now?

If these thirteen weeks go beautifully, what will be different in me?

What might get in my way, and what will I do when it shows up?

My Commitment

For the next thirteen weeks, I commit to...

My Charter time each week (day)

Time

Agreements for traveling this well

- You can't do this wrong. Pages or three lines, both count.
- Keep a pace you can sustain. If a week gets away from you, do the next right movement and keep going.
- Some dimensions won't fit your life right now. You'll still find something in those weeks.
- Tell the truth. Your Charter is private unless you choose to share it.
- Come to the Gatherings, live or on replay.
